

Karl Marx -- Atheist or Satanist?

PERTINENT BIOGRAPHICAL FACTS

Communist doctrine preaches atheism loudly, clearly, and consistently. This religious world view supposedly originated with Karl Marx, the Founding Father of Communism. Atheism is defined as "disbelief in or denial of, the existence of God". Since this is the definition of atheism, a practicing Satanist cannot be an atheist. A Satanist believes in the existence of God and Satan, of Heaven and Hell. The Satanist chooses, with his Free Will, to serve Satan, thus taking upon himself the characteristics of Satan, especially his unbelievable, supernatural, hatred of God, Christians, and Jews.

But, a Satanist will never be an atheist.

Since Karl Marx has been depicted as the creator of the greatest atheist system in world history, we should expect that he did not believe in God at all.

Surprise!! Marx was a practicing Satanist, and could not, therefore, be an Atheist. Karl grew up in a Christian family, and earlier in his life, confessed Jesus Christ as Savior. Consider this excerpt from a work Karl wrote as a youth:

"Union with Christ could give an inner elevation, comfort in sorrow, calm trust, and a heart susceptible to human love, to everything noble and great, not for the sake of ambition and glory, but only for the sake of Christ".

What a wonderful expression of love and devotion to Jesus Christ!! None of us could have done better. When Marx graduated from high school, the following comment was written under the heading Religious Knowledge:

"His knowledge of the Christian faith and morals is fairly clear and well grounded..."

Thus, we know that Marx knew Scripture well. However, soon after high school, Karl began an abrupt shift toward the adversary, Satan. Again, this time in a poem, Marx writes, "I wish to avenge myself against the One who rules above". This statement is quite consistent with a Satanist, who believes in God, Who rules above, but who has made a personal decision to side with Satan against God.

One of the key understanding of Satan is that he hates all mankind, and wishes them dead and in hell with him, simply and only because all human beings are made in the "image of God" (Genesis 1:26). Satan wishes eternal damnation for every human being God has ever created, even those people who serve him.

Now listen to Marx:

"...Yet I have power within my youthful arms

To clench and crush you (i.e., personified humanity)

with tempestuous force,

While for us both the abyss yawns in darkness.

You will sink down and I shall follow laughing,

Whispering in your ears 'Descend, come with me, friend'".

This is the attitude, the voice, of Satan. Marx knows his choice will send him to Hell for eternity and he wants to carry as many people with him as possible; and, Marx knew he was headed for Hell, as his next poem shows so very well:

"Thus Heaven I've forfeited,

I know it full well,

My soul, once true to God,

Is chosen for hell."

I cannot imagine a more terrible personal conclusion, that Marx knew, and accepted, the knowledge that he had made a lifelong choice for Satan and Hell. Reverend Wurmbrand shows many instances in which Marx possessed great hatred for all mankind and wanted nothing more than to destroy it and to enjoy that destruction. Because our space is so limited, we will quote just one representative sample:

"With disdain I will throw my gauntlet

Full in the face of the world,

And see the collapse of this pygmy giant

Whose fall will not stifle my ardour.

Then will I wander godlike and victorious

Through the ruins of the world

And, giving my words an active force,

I will feel equal to the Creator."

Again, we see the two Satanic characteristics of desiring to destroy all mankind and to become God or godlike.

Then Reverend Wurmbrand states his belief that Marx was actually possessed of demons, as he quotes Engel's written statement that Marx was a "monster possessed by 10,000 devils". This certainly explains Marx's many evil statements and the evil fruits of Communism so amply displayed before the world. Wurmbrand then proceeds to document the many instances in which 20th Century Communist leaders have either practiced aspects of Satanism or have actually worshipped Satan. He succinctly states his conclusion, "Communism is collective demon- possession".

For our purposes, we have studied the above material simply to ask the following question. "If Karl Marx was a practicing Satanist, and demon possessed, he certainly believed in the existence of God. Then, why did he supposedly write The Communist Manifesto, which established a system of Government and Economy professing absolute Atheism?" Wurmbrand unknowingly hits the truth squarely on the head when he states, "Marx's chief aim was the destruction of religion. The good of the workers was only a pretense". Remember our thesis, that Communism was created deliberately by the Masters of the Illuminati/Illuminist Freemasonry as the perfect Anti- Thesis to the Western Thesis (Capitalism) so that, according to the Hegelian Doctrine of Controlled Conflict, a planned protracted struggle between Thesis and Anti-Thesis would produce the new Satanic system, the New World Order. We know that, in 1848, "a highly select body of secret initiates who called themselves the League of Twelve Just Men of the Illuminati, financed Karl Marx to write the Communist Manifesto." If Illuminist Freemasonry really did create Communism, we should be able to see a firm connection with Freemasonry in Marx's life. Reverend Wurmbrand shows us this link perfectly, when he states, "Giuseppe Mazzini, who knew him (Marx) well, wrote that he had 'a destructive spirit',...[but] he maintained his friendship with him. The Jewish Encyclopedia says that Mazzini and Marx were entrusted with the task of preparing the address and the constitution of the First International. This means that they were birds of the same feather..."

Guiseppe Mazzini was an Italian Illuminist Freemason who, with Albert Pike

(Supreme Leader of North American Freemasonry), received that supernatural vision that three world wars would be required to establish the New World Order. And here we see he and Marx cooperating in leading the First International, the first global Communist conference, in 1864.

This is firm evidence of Freemasonry in Karl Marx's life. Mazzini and Marx were friends, which strongly suggests that they undoubtedly spent much time and effort discussing, planning and sharing ideas. Since Mazzini was a very influential Freemason, he would have logically been part of the plan to create the perfect Anti-Thesis to the Western Thesis to produce the desired Synthesis, utilizing the precepts of the Hegelian doctrine of Controlled Conflict Producing Controlled Change.

The final part to this puzzle is the question as to whether there was any direct link between the German Professor Hegel and the German Karl Marx. There certainly was, as Reverend Wurmbrand states emphatically that Professor Hegel was Karl Marx's first university professor! Marx even wrote a poem eulogizing Hegel.

Wurmbrand has this to say about Professor Hegel, "Christianity has been satirized in Germany before Hegel. But, he was the first to satirize Jesus Himself....We are what we feed upon. Marx fed upon Satanic ideas; therefore, he set forth Satanic doctrine".

Our circle of understanding is now complete. Professor Hegel taught Satanic doctrine in his Controlled Change By Controlled Conflict, and he convinced a most enterprising pupil, Karl Marx. Marx and his friend Mazzini could very well have perfected the plan, or, if Marx had no direct input into perfecting the plan, he would have been willing to act as the mouthpiece to put it into public print. I personally believe Marx had little to no involvement in creating Communism, because he was so out of control in his personal life; however, he was the perfect disciple to serve as the mouthpiece for propagating the Anti-Thesis, Communism.

One final note: Christian author and former Satanist/Illuminist, Doc Marquis, states emphatically that he was taught that Communism was created by the Illuminati. In fact, the very name, Communism is simply another way of expressing, Illuminism.

This much is clear -- Communism was created by Freemasonry as the perfect opposite system (Anti-Thesis) to the Western system (Thesis) to produce the desired system (New World Order). Karl Marx was a willing accomplice in publicly propagating this Satanic Plan, and Communist leaders from Lenin to Stalin to Mao Tse-tung, to Gorbachev have also been willing deceivers, all knowingly cooperating with Western leaders in a global plan to produce the New World Order.

But, now, you are no longer deceived!!

"We inadvertently stated that the name of the statute in Odessa, Russia. The statute was of Satan, and had the name, Baphomet underneath. However, our point was the same, that Communists were not atheists, but were secret worshippers of Satan. Communist leaders were secretly worshipping this statute."
